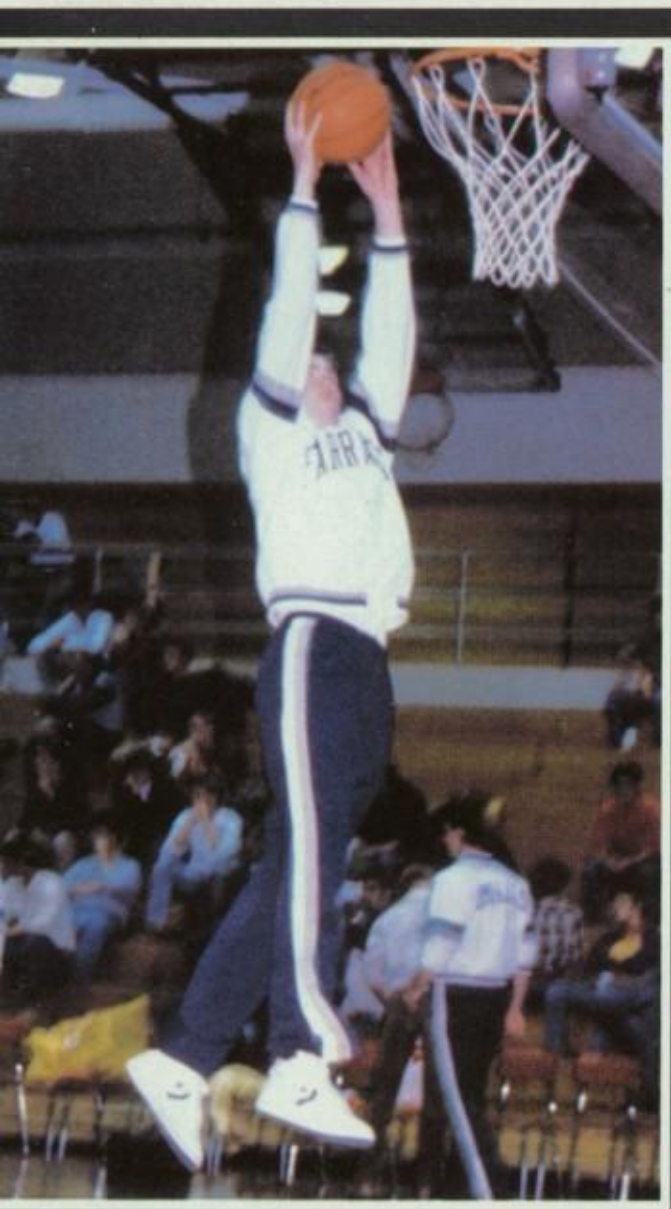
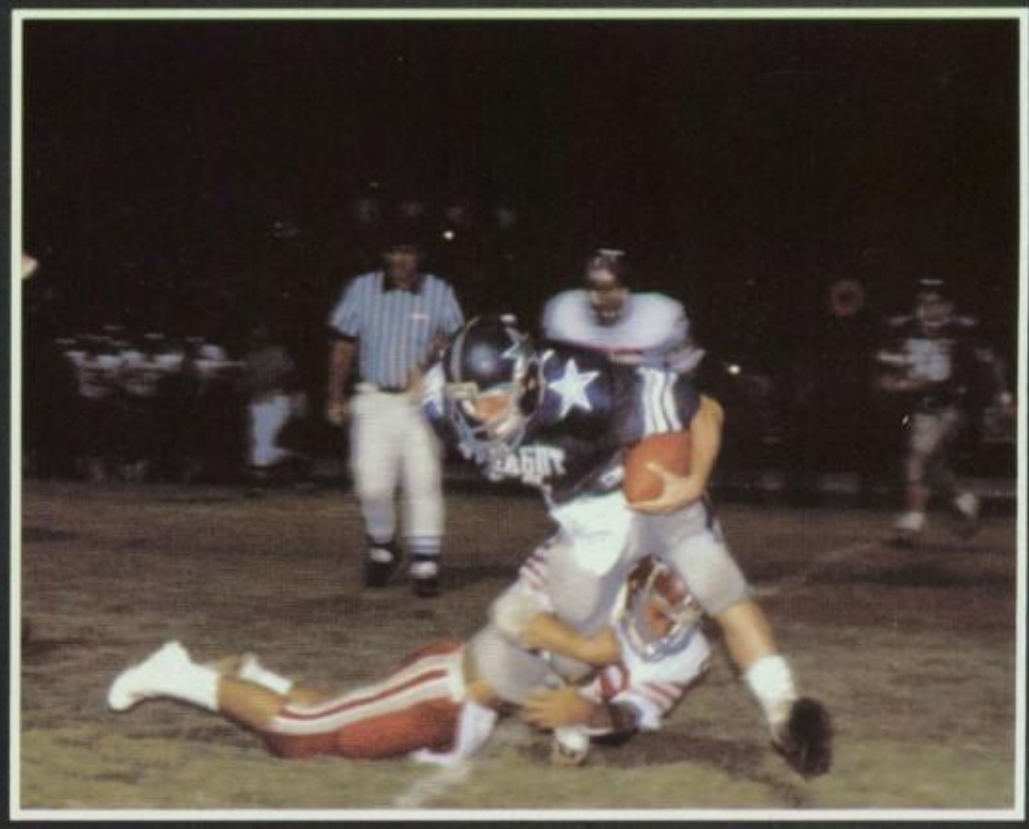
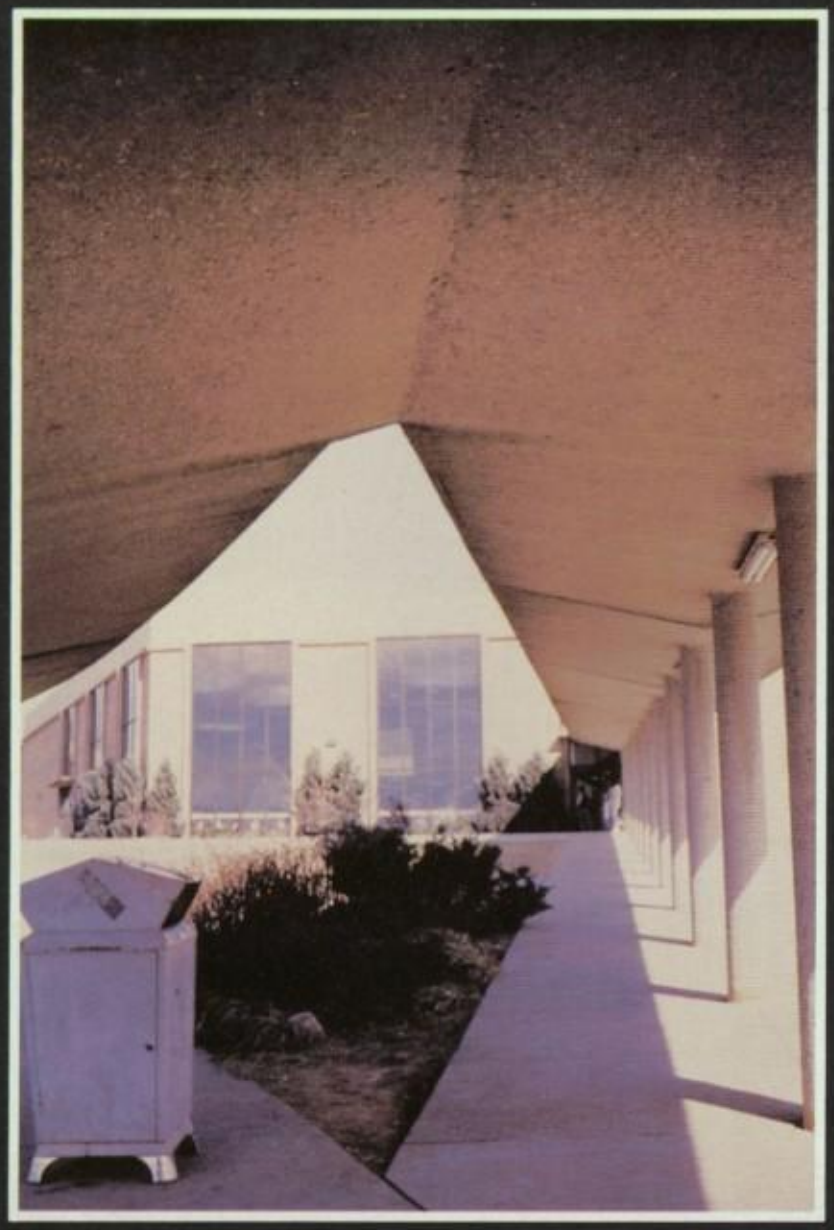
. . . AND THIS IS WHERE WE'RE AT!

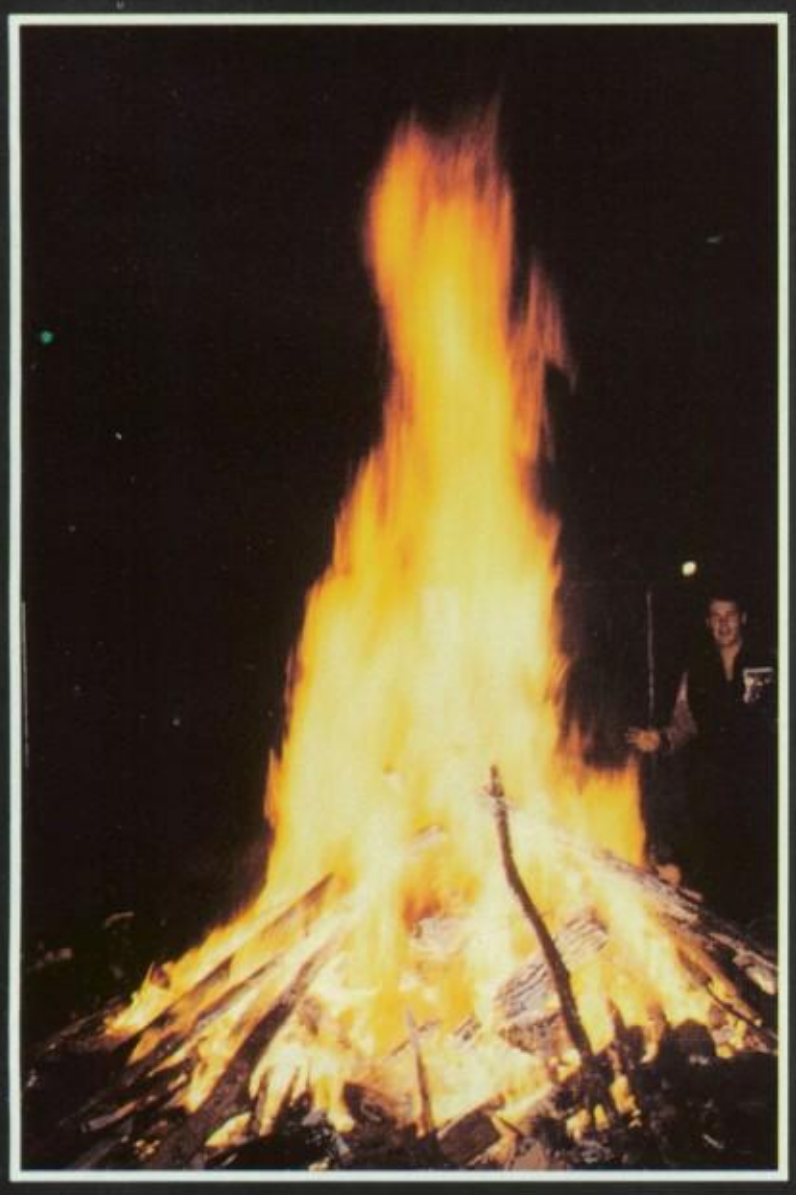






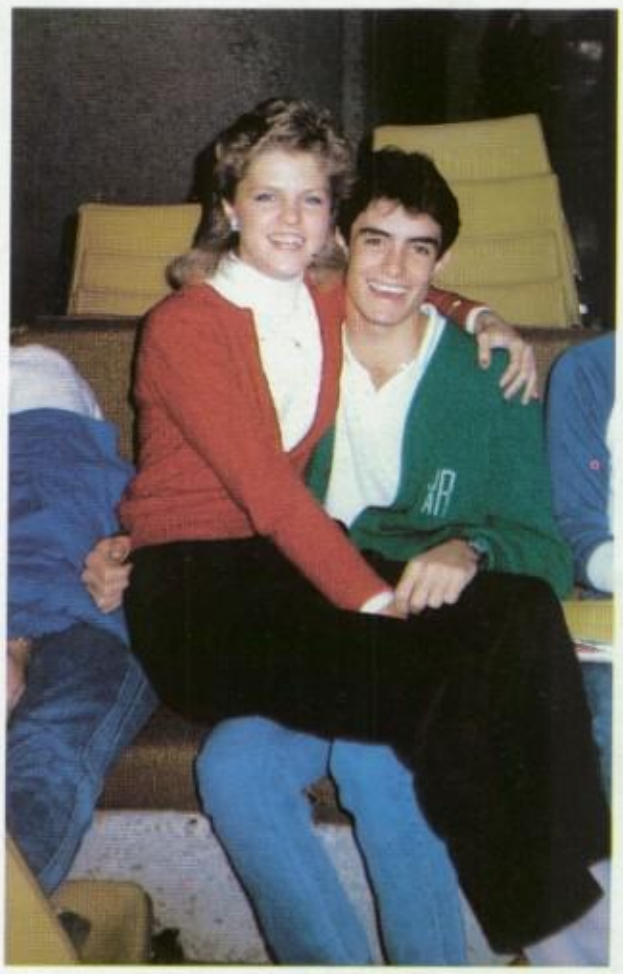
As it says in Ecclesiastes 3, "there is a time for every matter under Heaven." Nerd Day brought out the true character of many of our friends; it was our time to laugh. When the Red Devils reduced our state dreams to ashes, it was our time to cry. The week of semester finals was our time to try, and tossing up our caps at graduation was our time to cheer. But these four years, well . . . it's been

OUR TIME TO SHINE



THAT'S WHAT FRIENDS ARE FOR

"If we hadn't have been so different, we never would have become so close."



"What would we do without each other?!?!"

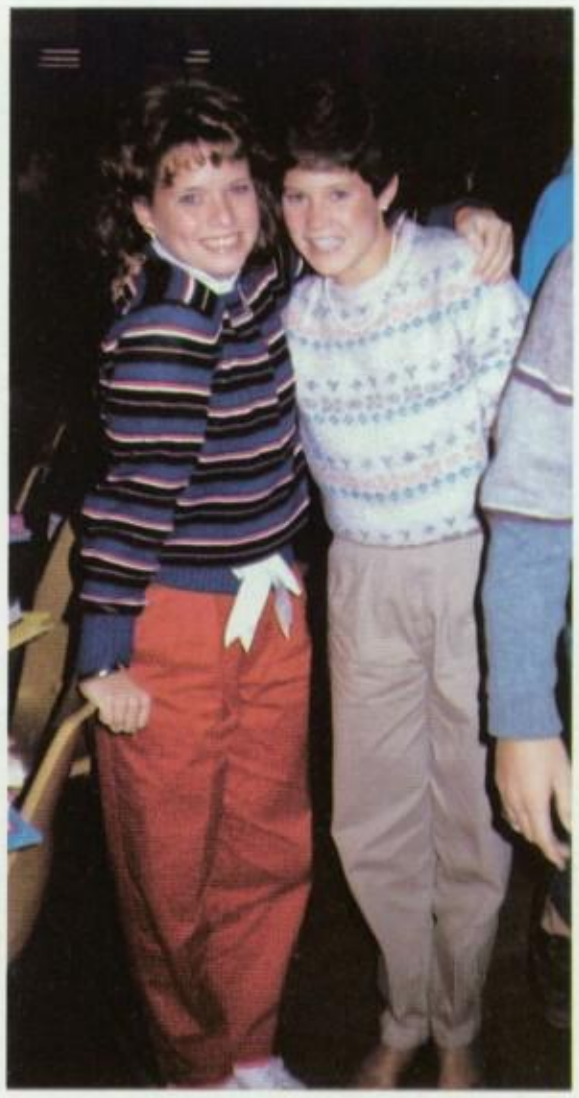
"A faithful friend is a strong defense; and he that has found such has found a treasure."

"Best friends don't fight, we only beat up on one another."

"A friend expects the best from you but accepts you for who you are."

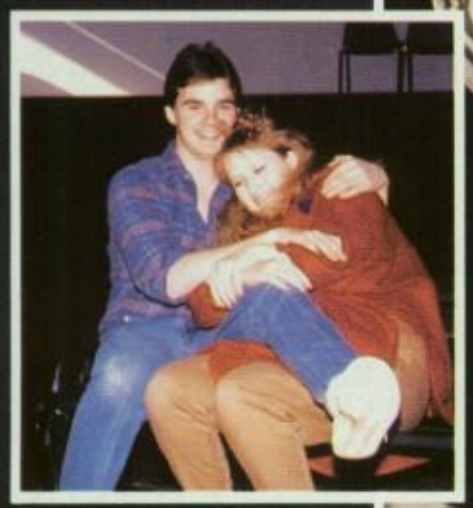
"Friendship divides our grief and doubles our joy."

"Friends are forever . . . until you die."



"She's better than a sister."

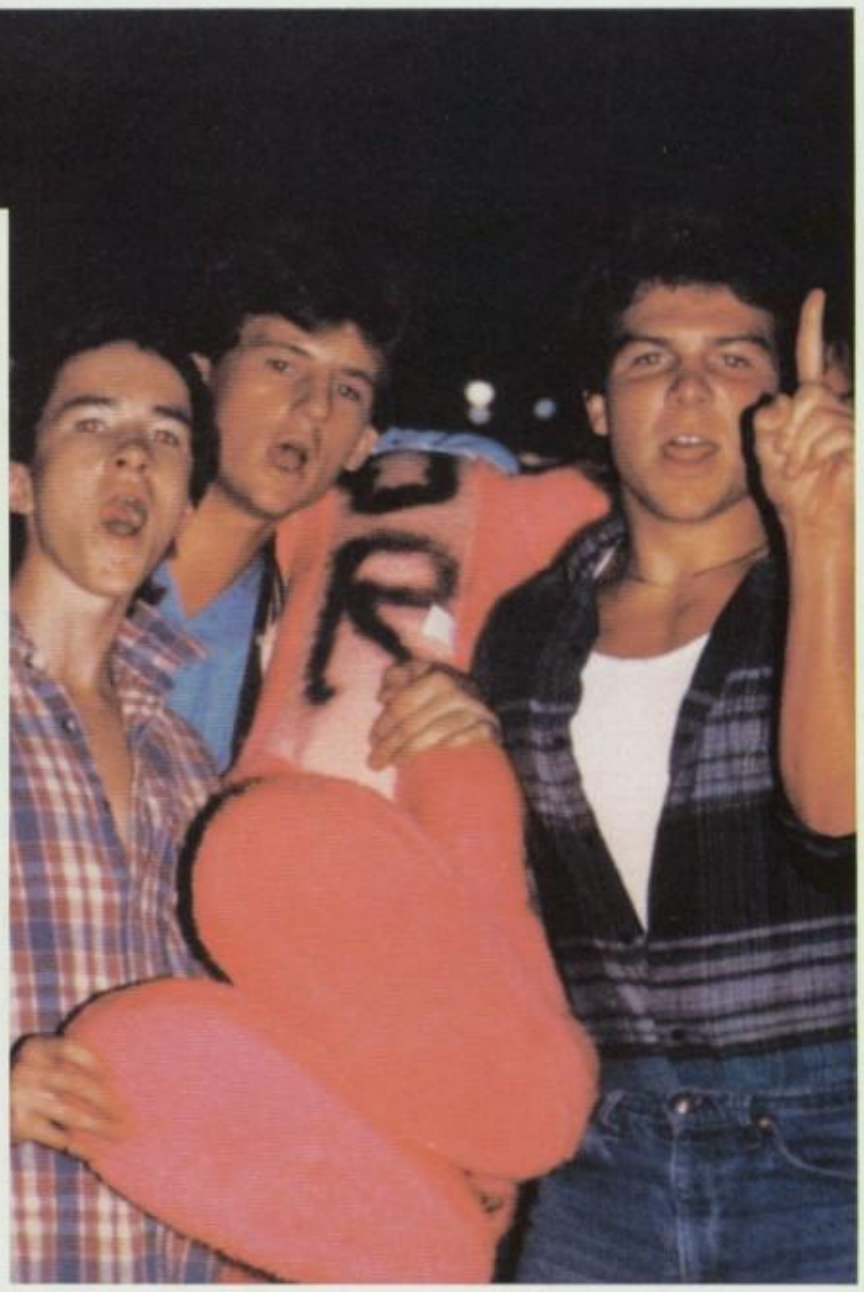
WE STICK



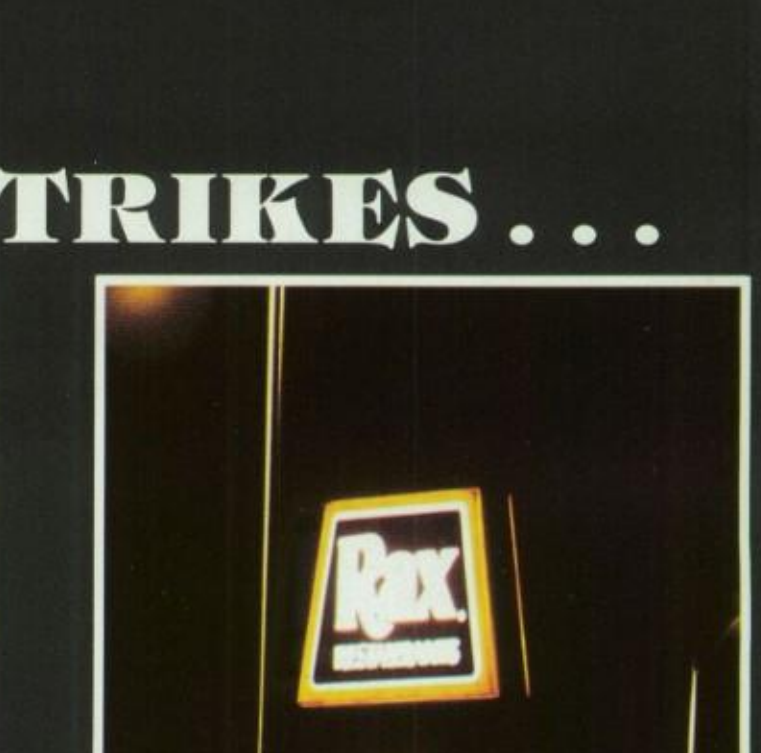
TOGETHER

Let's Go

Admirals



WHEN HUNGER STRIKES . . .



Everyone dreads Geometry, and most of us are reluctant to head toward English, but we all look forward to lunch. It's not the food we look forward to — it's the adventure! Though sneaking off campus to eat takes no more courage than does eating the school food, it seems to be the more popular choice. All year long students scheme, plot, and plan ways to go "out" to lunch. We must give credit to Coach Bain, Mr. Hume, Coach Clabo, et cetera — they try hard — but who could contain 2,400 students with such a smorgasbord nearby? This year, in addition to McDonald's, Burger King, Wendy's, Mussleman's, and Kentucky Fried Chicken, we had a Rax and a Taco Bell spring up out of nowhere! So when hunger strikes, the Admirals go to lunch. Who can blame us?

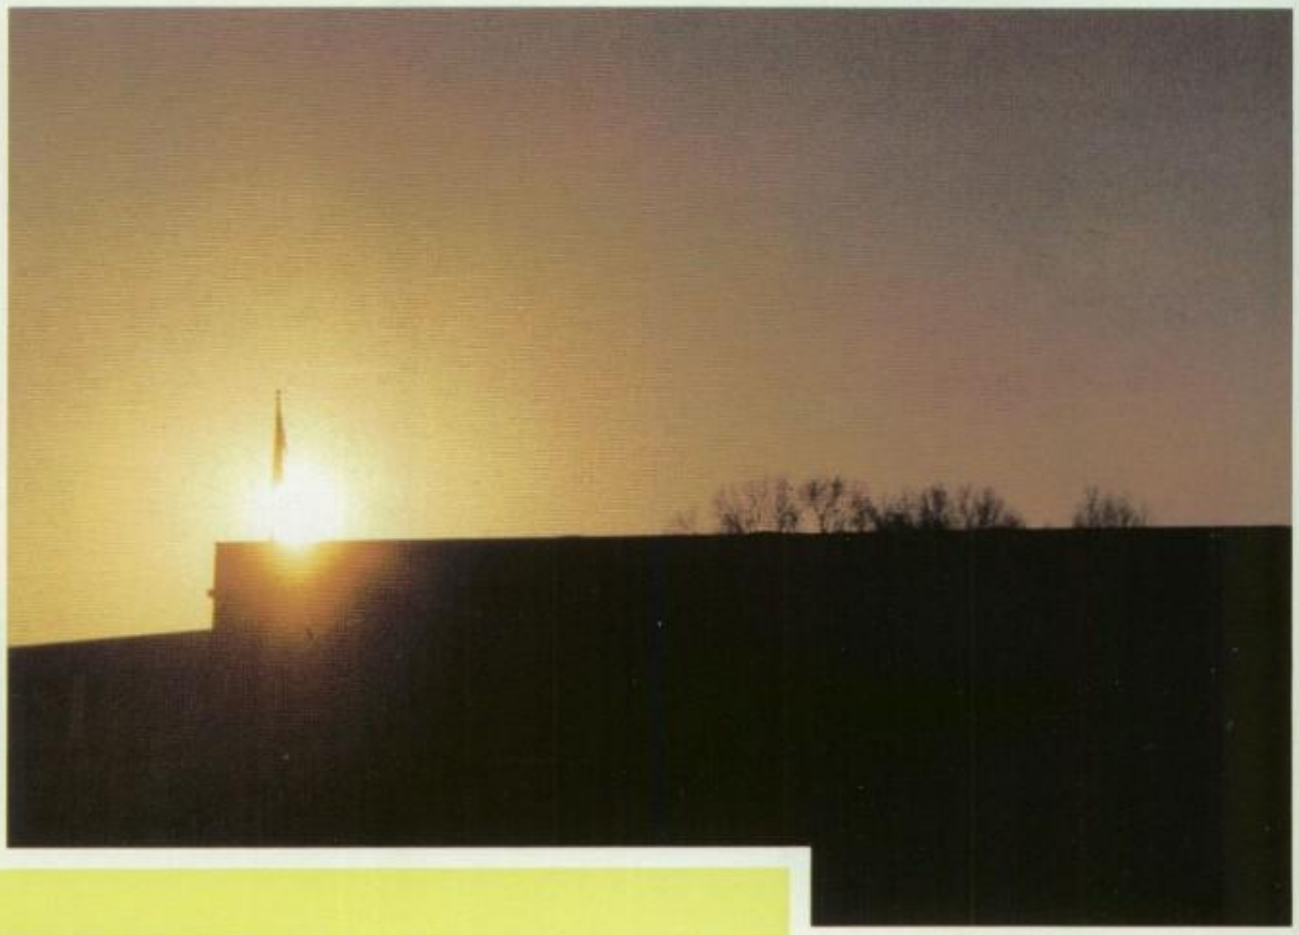
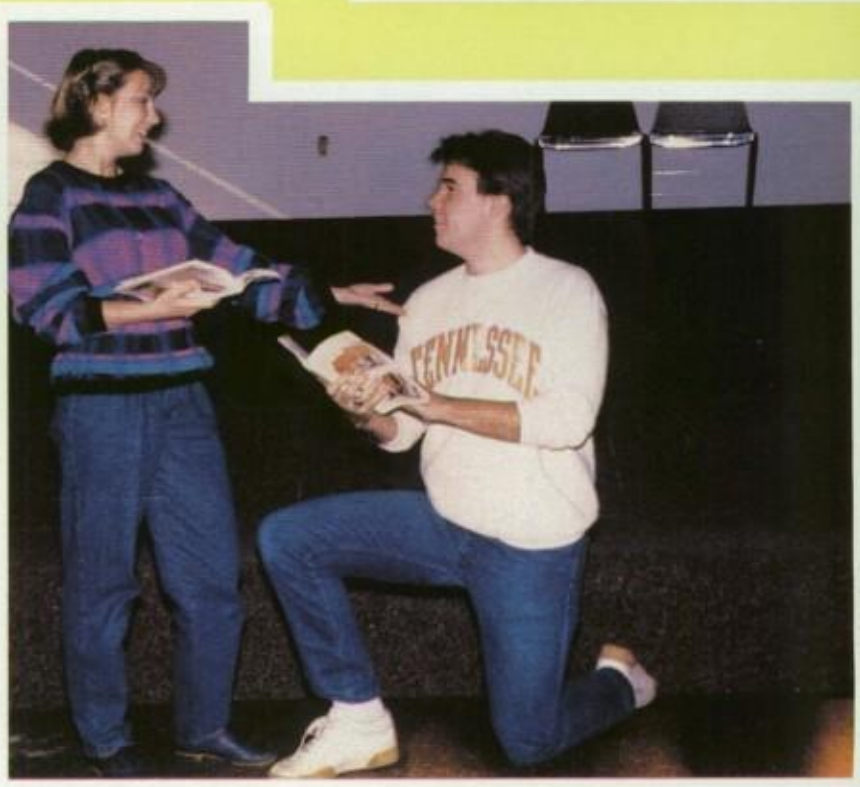
CHASE YOUR DREAMS





High school is a place not only for learning English, math, and science, but also a place where many start to shape and mold their dreams. Dreams are important, for they influence those who have them to set goals for themselves. Striving to achieve the highest satisfaction in life, dreamers can acquire much of what they desire by attacking their goals with a passion for success. This kind of enthusiasm can prove to be exhilarating, because earning something yields a satisfaction that is far different from merely watching things happen. With this in mind, don't be a watcher — be a doer. Chase your dreams!!

Throughout the year the Admiral Staff organizes and plans for an annual that captures all the aspects of Farragut High School. This year a group of very different people came together to form a special family that helped each other through the good times and the bad. The new head of this family is Mrs. Becky Holt.

This year's Crow's Nest Staff kept the student body up-to-date on current events at F.H.S. The "Comment Corner" gave us an inside view to our peer's reactions to certain subjects such as AIDS, girls playing football, and the bomb scare. Along with some serious editorials, there was a lighter side with "Deer Neer" and a humorous Horoscope.The Crow's Nest is sponsored by Mrs. Wages and Mr. Jenkins.

NHS — That stands for National Honor Society, and what an honor it is at Farragut! To even be eligible for this club students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.5. Other requirements are active involvement in extracurricular activities including community service. This year each member was also required to earn twenty hours of individual projects along with participating in a group project. NHS became a close group this year as they worked hard together to represent Farragut.

DRAW, PARTNER!

The National Art Honor Society was a very outstanding club at Farragut this year. Together the most talented and creative students brought their art into the community for the awareness and appreciation of future artists. To join the club, one has to have at least a B average in art and submit several pieces of their own original artwork to be judged. Once in the group each member enters many contests with their artwork along with displaying the pieces around school.

There were two math organizations at Farragut this year. One, Math Club, was for anybody interested in math. The other, Mu Alpha Theta, had a grade point average requirement. Members were inducted only if they had a cumulative GPA of 3.5 in math. Farragut was once again the host of a math bowl this year, and "our gang" did splendidly, as usual. CHECKING IT OUT WITH SGA

A form of government is very important in any type of organization to keep it running smoothly. The Student Government played a major part in Farragut this year. It is made up of a group of students, selected from their first period class and from each club, that have leadership ability and can keep our school in good shape. This year they worked on such things as the Sadie Hawkins dance, decorating the school for Christmas, and helping MEDIC when they came to FHS. They actually worked with the blood themselves! The officers this year were: President, Karen Stierberger; Vice-Presidents, Robin Franklin and Leah Pooler; Secretary, Rachel Kennedy; and treasurer, Heather Sonner.

4-H — 4 LEARNING AND GROWING

4-H is a very important club at Farragut. You might ask, exactly what is 4-H? This is a service organization that helps young people to grow and provides them a basis for a career in the future. The four H's stand for head, heart, hands, and health (this is a trivial pursuit question by the way). Our 4-H members have been outstanding this year at the TVA&I Fair, the County Public Speaking Contest, and even at the National Congress as part of the entertainment.

1. OFFICERS: Jan Cornelius, President; Terri Turner, Vice-President; Mark Powell, Secretary; John Mabre, Social Chairman; Susan Woodall, Reporter

What's a "Fethaval"? It's a NFL party (such as the "Fethaval" on wheels) and they've created a bunch this year. That's not all NFL does, though. It's a club that affords excellent opportunity for the development of dramatic ability, and the members have proven this by all of the awards they've won in competitions this year. Winners of the highest honor awarded, Ruby, were Doug Mullins and Jordan Nasser. Way to go!

Kappa Tau Sigma's motto is Key to Success and these girls have proven that they hold the key. This group has nightly meetings each week in which they plan their service projects and fun activities. This year, after the food drive, sponsored in part by SGA, KTS persuaded some of the UT Sugar Bowl Champs to make an appearance at our school. Among those present were Carlos Reveis, Tim Welch, Keith Davis, and cheerleader Sandi Sentell. Much thanks goes to KTS for giving the student body a chance to meet such talented people. It was no surprise that the marching Admirals were splendid this year. Through all the hard work and practices after school, they never failed to make us proud to be Farragut Admirals! When the tables were turned, you didn't have to worry about dressing up, because jeans and a flannel shirt fit right in. It gave the guy a chance to sit back and let his gal take care of all the arrangements. With the smell of leaves and bales of hay, the students at FHS enjoyed themselves at the Sadie Hawkins Dance with a little "Rock and Role-reversal."

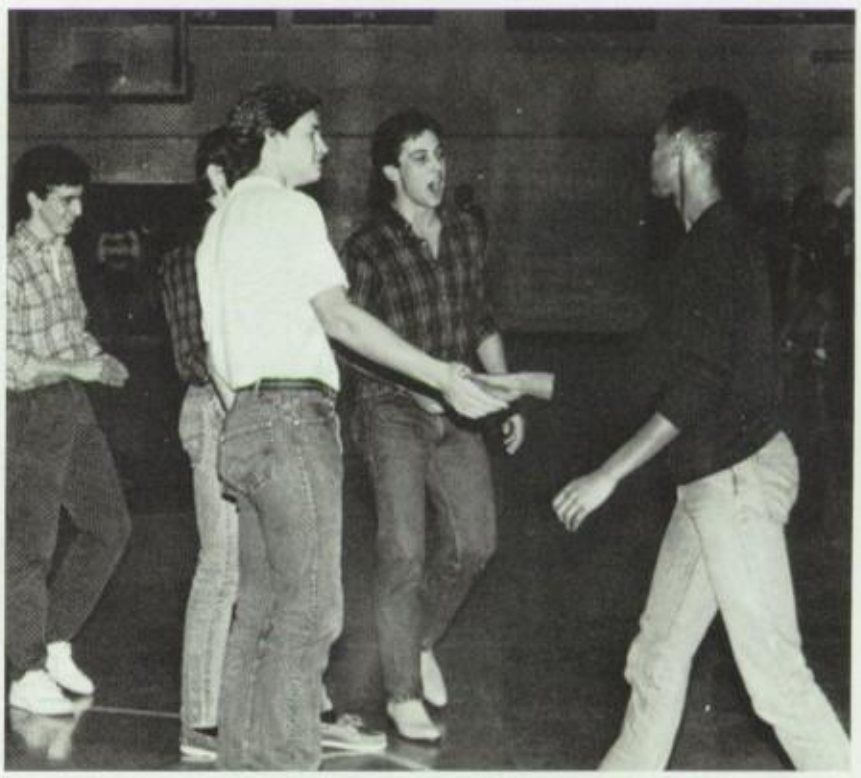
GETTING TOGETHER WITH SPIRIT

The Varsity squad celebrates with "high-fives" as Danny Jividen walks onto the floor.

During the year, the students are brought together at pep rallies and at bonfires to show their spirit. The crowd is split and this division starts a heated battle of classes to see who has more spirit. Once this verbal fight is over and everyone is excited, then everyone joins together to cheer for our athletes. This energy is used to motivate the players and to show that the students at FHS are behind their sports.

This group at the Bonfire predicts the victory.

The crowd looks on with heated excitement.



The Juniors of the Varsity welcome another player onto the floor.

Mike Wright shows what he thinks of the Wildcats.

"You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown" Brings

The Farragut choral department presented "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown." All of the Peanuts gang were brought to life under the direction of Carey Crowe, George Heuchart, and Lovada Ferguson.

1. Charlie Brown was portrayed by Mark Rowe.
2. Woodstock (Terri Turner) does a joyful dance.
3. Erica Allen played Lucy and Cheryl Powell played Patty.

To clean up their act the National Honor Society cleaned up Camp Chilhowee this year. Each member is expected to earn group project hours by participating in one of the projects the club did together. Not only did they get the camp spic-and-span, but they had fun doing it. This community service project proved to be a success.

1. Mike Bunch, Marc Matthews, and Jim Baker display their muscular ability.
2. These girls weed out the area.
3. They're finally done!
4. Jill Price and Kristen Callaway rest for a moment.
5. Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Johnson clean up a bit.

NAHS — WHAT A SHOW!!

The National Art Honor Society was very important to Farragut this year. They placed in many contests in Knoxville. One specific project they participated in was the show on Market-Square Mall. They prepared several pieces of artwork to be displayed and then took some others to work on while spectators watched.

1. John Taylor is one of Farragut's fine artists.
2. Erin Branton prepares one of her pieces for the show.
3. Julie Sudman, Melissa Castle, Erin Branton, and others at Market-Square Mall.

What does one think of when Valentine's Day comes around? Drifting away into thoughts of romance and love? Well, what better way to drift along than with balloons. Balloon day, sponsored by the Annual Staff, was an occasion of love with red, blue, and white balloons. Red was for those in love, blue was for those secretly in love, and white was for friends.

1. Leah Ratliff is thrilled to receive her bouquet of balloons.
2. Cindy Wesley looks pleased.
3. Debra Wainner and Mike Perry with all the balloons being handed out.

STUDENTS SIZZLE DURING SPIRIT WEEK

The students at FHS have the opportunity to show their spirit by participating in Spirit Week. During this week they dress up in the given theme of each day. With floral printed sheets for Toga Day, taped glasses for Nerd Day, baggy pajamas for Pajama Day, and overalls for Farmer Day, the students displayed their spirit with great enthusiasm and creativity. Even if it was a little embarrassing, everyone had a great time.

1. "Is this spirit or what?!?"
2. "I wouldn't touch that if I were you."

4. Nick Glover knows how it's done.
5. Jennifer Morton and Kristen Callaway spend a few — very few — minutes in the room.
6. Luci Diggs and Ricky West have obviously discovered that life's a beach.
7. Who wouldn't love to bum on this beach?
8. Carey Hook can tell you. It doesn't get much better than this.
9. Camie Costa seems to have found the perfect spot.

The only thing that keeps a Farrgut student going through January, February, and March is Spring Break. This year, Admirals could be found on the beaches in Ft. Lauderdale, Daytona, Pensacola, and everywhere in-between. It was a wild ten days, full of . . . well, you know what went on. Spring Break '86 — does it get any better?

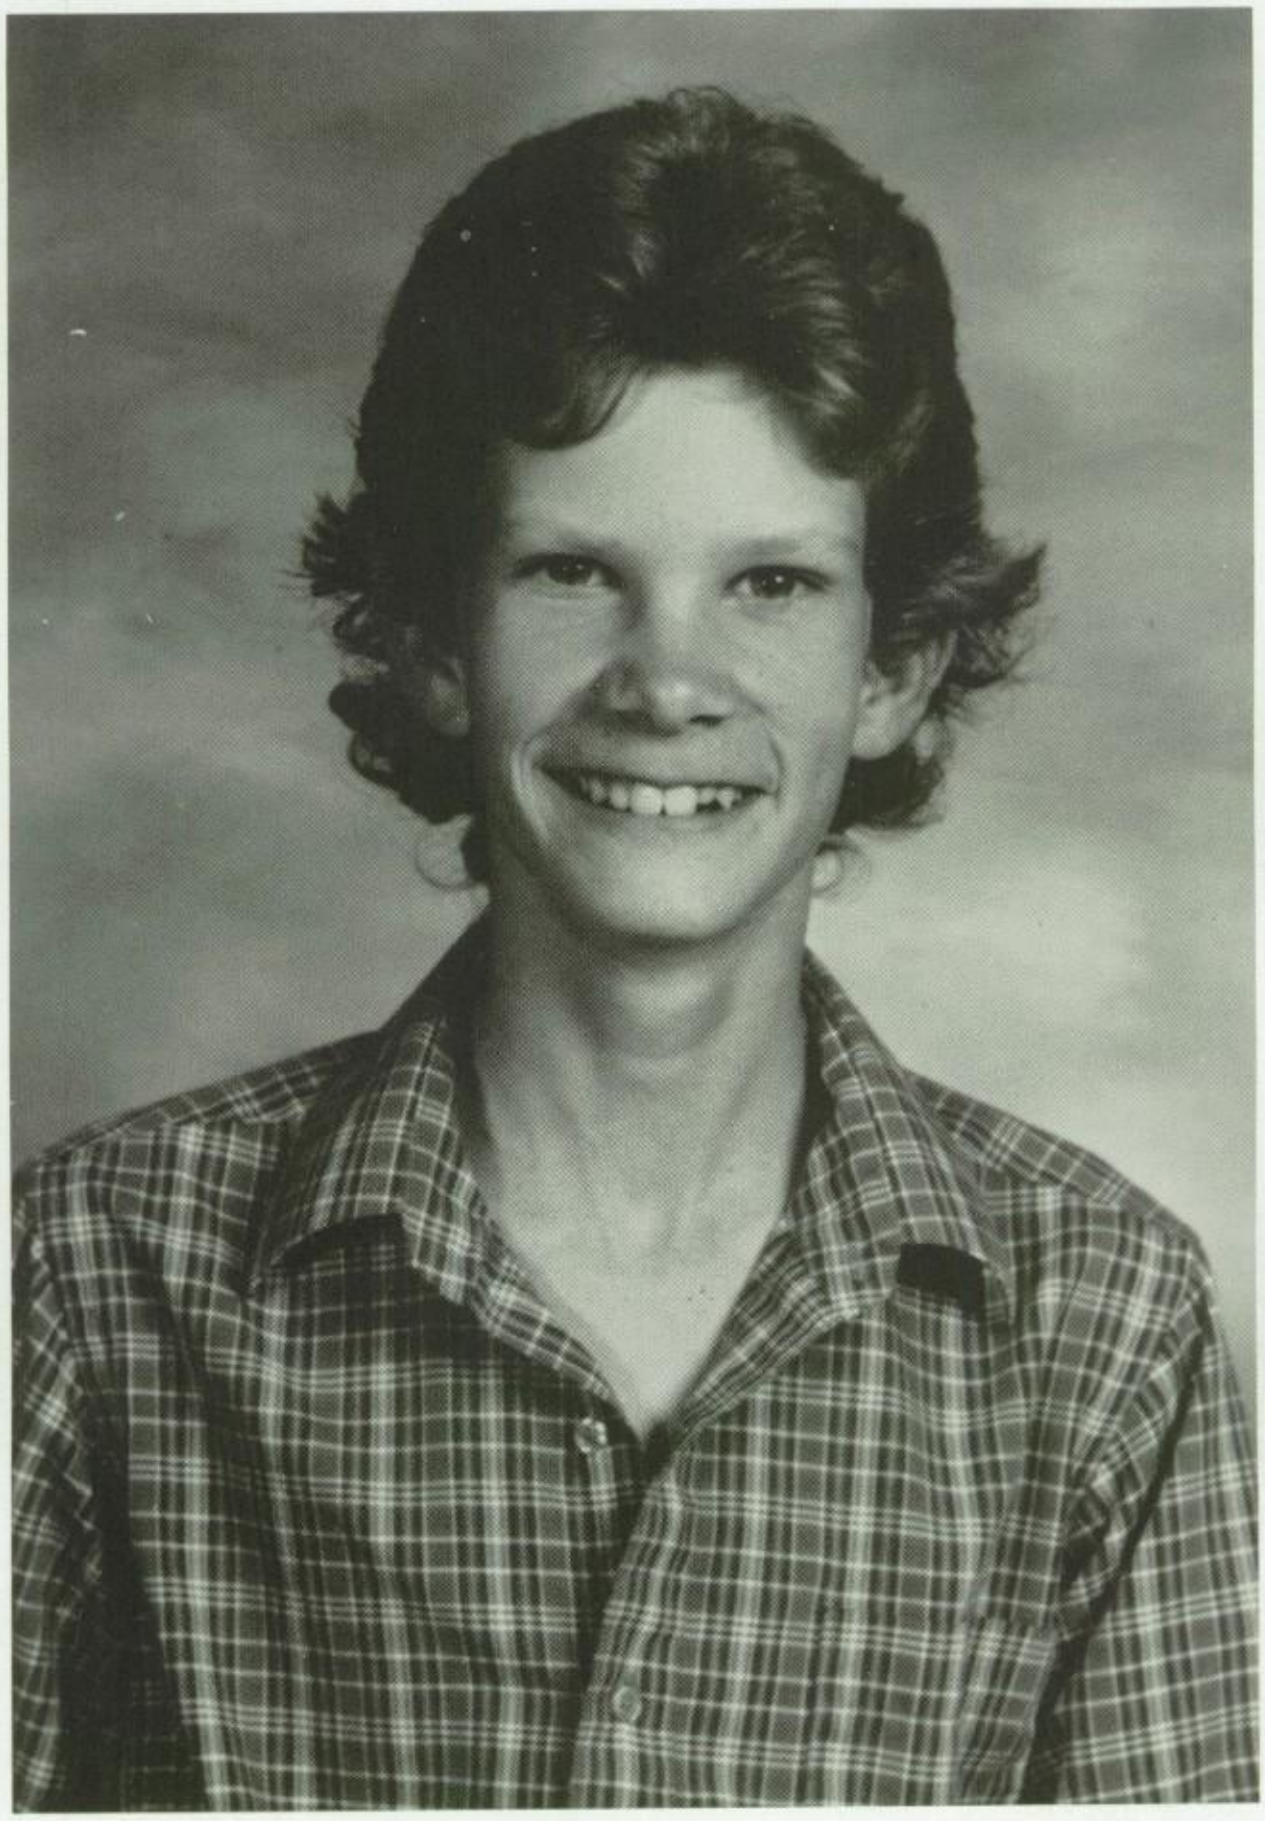
IN MEMORY OF TIMOTHY HULING



There is a time in everyone's life when a loved one passes away. This time it was a close and dear friend of mine and of many others. I knew Tim for two years, and in that time we had many great and memorable times together. We also had some rough times, but we never did anything to hurt our close friendship. Tim was a real busy guy. If he didn't have anything to do, he would do his best to find something to do. Tim loved his motorcycle. He would clean and polish it until it was spotless. Tim loved horses, too. He and I went horseback riding together often. There were other things Tim liked to do. He liked to fish, ski, play golf, and ride his motorcycle. Tim was full of good humor. No matter how down you were, he could make you laugh. Tim was always there if you needed him for something. He would help you in any way that he could. Tim is going to be missed by many, and he will always have a place in our hearts. I will never forget him.

THE PRINCI-PALS OF FARRAGUT

Notice the last syllable in the word principal — PAL. That's exactly what the principals of Farragut High School are. Each student has a chance to get to know the principals as they try to help us. This year they suffered through bomb threats, burning lockers, and the downstairs orange bathroom. I'll bet they wonder what's next.

1. Mr. Bellamy . . . "behind the scenes" of Farragut High.
2. Mrs. Wiberly signs a letter for Janee Watt.
3. Mr. Dagley and Mr. Lyons make sure all the books are returned correctly.
4. Mr. Hume busy at work catching all the juveniles not going to class.

THE GUIDES TO OUR SCHOOL

nce counselors at Farragut sure were dedicated this year. Each counselor for each individual grade spent hours with the students finding out their needs and problems and helping them through it all. The career lab was also helpful to those in need of some guidance as to their future careers. Yes, from drop-and-add to letters of recommendation, guidance helped us through it all.

1. Mrs. Calhoun keeps the office running smoothly.
2. Mrs. Barrentine was a new edition this year.
3. Mrs. Blair busy at work in the career lab.
4. Dr. Wilbourn took care of the whole Senior class.
5. Mrs. Ferguson was in charge of the Junior class.
6. Mrs. Huck is the Sophomore counselor.
7. Mrs. Chance was the luckiest of them all, for she got to take the Freshman class.

THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING PEOPLE

There is one language in high school we all have to take and is required all four years — English. However, high school English is not like Spanish, French, or German — the basics are already known. High school English is filled with term papers, essays, take home tests, and books we have to read but never fully understand. How could we do all this without the help of our wonderful English teachers?

1. Mr. Heuchert lectures his class.
2. Bill Haas and Michael Buckner became fast friends.
3. Ms. Bishop finds a quiet place to rest and relax.
4. Mrs. N. Johnson is the head of our English department.
5. Mrs. Clayton gives Greg Matthews the "look."

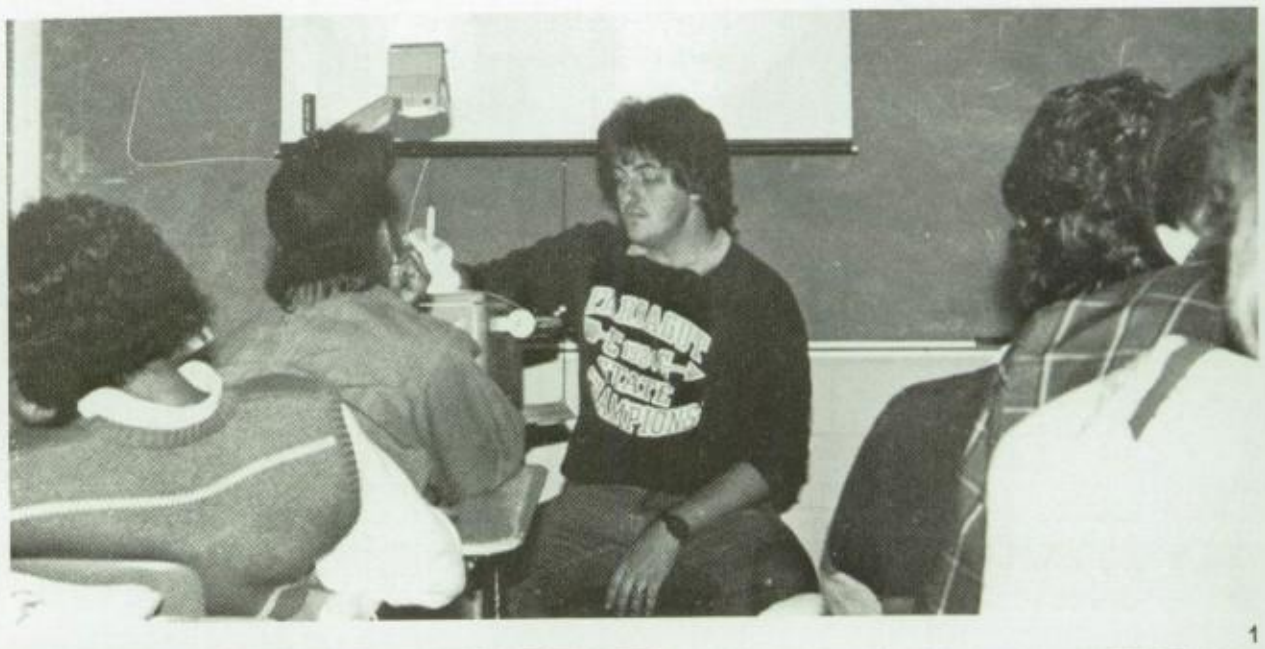
CAPTIVATED BY CALCULATIONS

The math department has Farragut High School students all figured out. This year the department offered a complete variety of challenging classes. The list begins with Advanced Math, Algebra I, Algebra II, Calculus, Computer Math, General Math, and Geometry.

Annual Staff caught some of our math students in action.



1. Mr. Parker uses the overhead to explain a mathematical processes in his fourth period class.
2. Wade Milam, Diane Reynolds, and Allan Philip attentively listen to the Mu Alpha Theta speaker.
3. Mrs. Stallings helps Lia Downs with her Algebra II homework.

ARTISTIC ABILITY ABOUNDS

This year the Art Department has been drawing much attention. While some students participated in the T.V.A. and I Fair student art exhibit, others were honored in the scholastics awards. Four seniors, Matthew Anderson, Joshua Darling, Suzy Sweet, and Jayne Wentzel, combined their talents to paint an extraordinary mural for the Farragut Primary School.

In drama, the forensic team was small, but who says big is better? Ms. Riley said this year's team was the best we've ever had! The team competed in Knoxville, Nashville, and Gatlinburg.

Farragut's talented musicians had an excellent year. From our marching band to our string specialists, we've got it all! Mrs. Steen commented that the orchestra was one of the best ever. Congratulations to all for a job well done!

COMING

The 1985-86 boys' and girls' cross country teams started practice in July. They attended camp Nathan Bedford Forrest in Tennessee, which lasted one week. The teams practiced every day after school from four o'clock until five-thirty, sometimes running seven, eight, and nine miles. Kelly Officer and Kirk Hudleston were the team captains.

Although injuries of key performers on the boys' team limited early success, they finished fifth in the state. Our girls managed to hold on to an impressive third place finish at the state meet, although some strong runners were hurt near the end of the season.

BOWLING TEAM ROLLS OVER OPPONENTS

Each of the two bowling teams this year were made up of five members. They bowled every Sunday from September until March. The B team finished fifth in the league this year. Laura Tate and Ray Benjamin each won league trophy. Laura Murphy came in first in the high games series and also had the highest average. Sue Arnhart sponsored the team.

ADMIRAL BASEBALLERS SLIDE

The schedule was considered to be the most challenging ever attempted by an Admiral team. The most memorable game was against Bearden. The game was witnessed by the largest crowd to ever see a baseball game at Farragut.

— Coach Herky Payne

Once again the Farragut Varsity Baseball team completed the 1986 season with a very successful 19-11 record. Interest was at a high level and there were many exciting games played both at home and at other schools. The most memorable game was against Bearden. David Helton knocked in two runs in the seventh inning to tie the game in regulation time and Chris O'Neal hit a homerun in the eighth inning to win the game by a score of 6 to 5. David Helton led the team in hitting — completing the season with a remarkable 471 average. This included 9 homeruns and 40 RBI's. Robby Thomas compiled a 406 average and stole 22 bases. John Whited played the region with a broken thumb and 348 with 5 homeruns. John Pomfret lead the pitching staff by winning 7 games and no losses. The coaches were Head coach, Herky Payne and Assistant coach Scott McKenzie.

Another year of exciting softball action, as the Lady Admirals pulled together to place second in the district tournament. The softballers, along with the excellent coaching by Javonne Hall, finished with an 18-5 record. In the district tournament, they finished 13-4 overall. Some of the outstanding players, Rhonda Lumpkin, Pat Fontenot, Carra Witt, and Maria Studer, helped the team in their victories. The team had a good year.

The 1985-86 Girls Varsity Track Team put forth a great effort this year. A few injuries to some great runners did not stop these girls. They finished a close second in the county meet. Cheri Dunning, Elizabeth Goeser, Kelly Officer, and Becky Sowder led the two mile relay team to the state finals. The team captains were Collete Mason, Aubry Newbold, Kelly Officer and Becky Sowder.

The 1985-86 Boys Varsity Track Team had a good season, finishing first in the coutny meet. Top performers were Luke Swicegood, who tied the oldest school record in the pole vault, and Lee Hill, who destroyed the intermediate hurdles school record. Other top performers were Alan Cannon, Mike Davis, Matt Hindilighter, Chip Reeves, and Danny Stone. Way to go guys!

MEMORIES MADE THE NIGHT

Although the senior banquet is held to award those who received scholarships, the annual slide show has become the highlight of the evening. After the catered dinner, seniors were entertained by many of their fellow students. The slide show marked the last time the class was together before graduation.

1. David Skalet and Melissa Troutman show their excitement before the slide show begins.
2. The Valedictorian accepts her award from Mr. Bellamy.
3. Vicki Russell gives a tall, dark stranger a hug.
4. There were many tearful good-byes when the banquet was over.
5. Janee receives her well-deserved award with surprise.

Most of us wish Prom could go on forever and the theme at this year's Prom, "Forever." made it come close. Sponsored by the Junior class, prom was an awesome event with Andy Ruie and Becky Butler as Prom King and Queen.

1. Andy Ackermann and Lisha Brock are greeted by two mysterious men on their way into Prom.
2. Kyle Keeney and his date find one of Prom's romantic spots.
3. Darryl Mackley escorts his date through the gazebo and into the dance.
4. Anxious couples await their turn to have a lasting memory made of Prom.
5. Brave Kathenne Marshall wouldn't miss out on an evening like this.

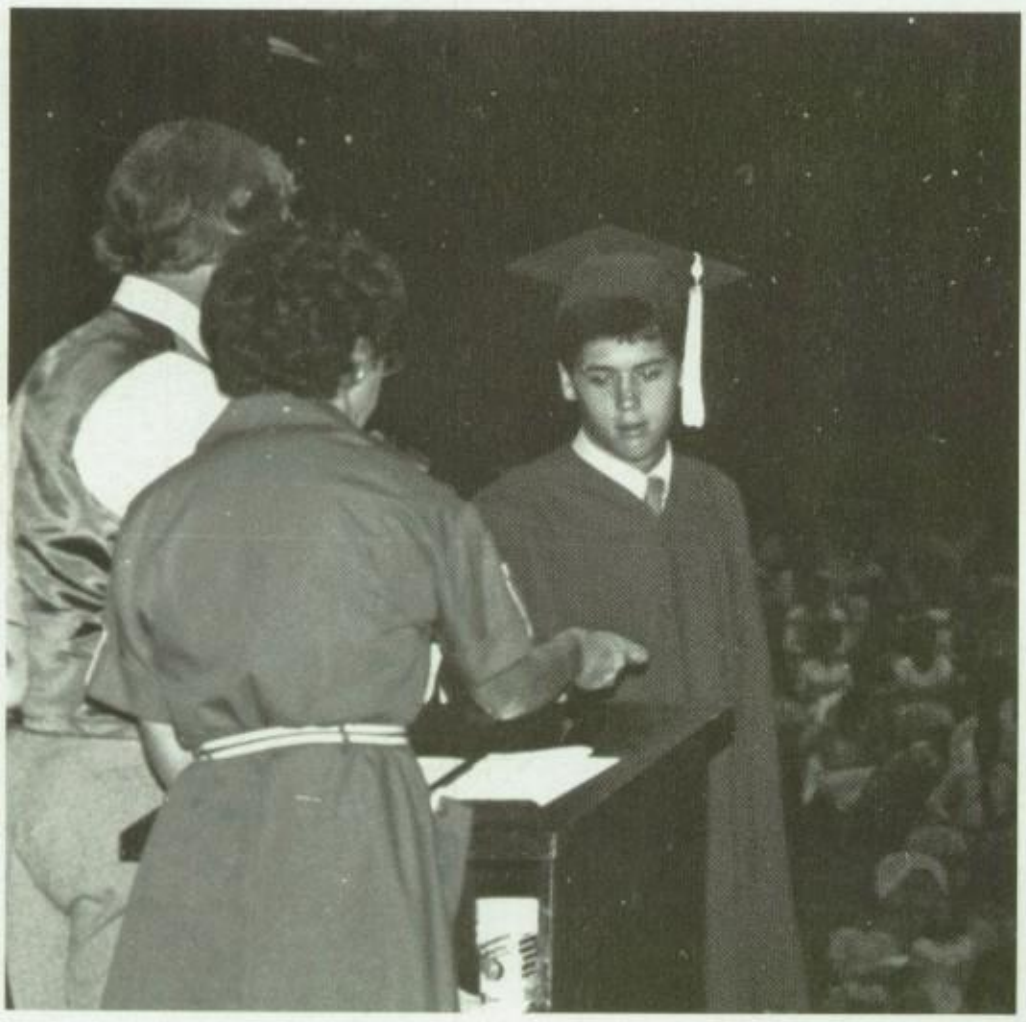
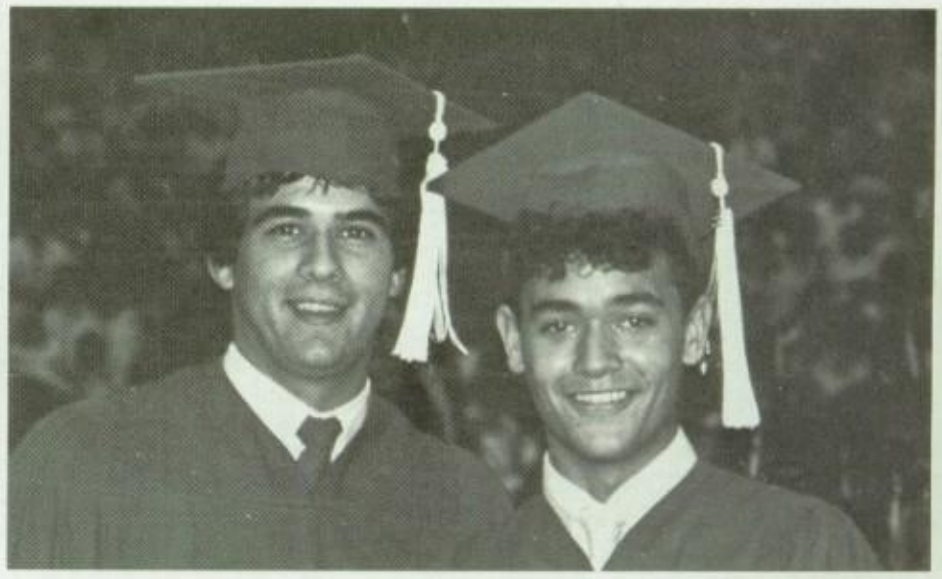
THE FUTURE AWAITS





THE CLASS OF 1986

Graduation — for many seniors it is a time for rejoicing; for others it is a time of sadness. For all who graduated on May 31, 1986 at Stokely Athletic Center, commencement marks a time of change. Commencement means a beginning, and for the Class of 1986, graduation holds the truth that a new and exciting period had begun in the lives of its more than 500 members. When the last person crossed the stage to receive his diploma, it marked the end of high school for the Class of 1986. The future, and the many challenges it holds, now awaits each individual.

HAVING FUN ON THE FIELD!

At the end of the school year, Farragut Seniors get a chance to show their stuff at Senior Field Day. The events are not difficult because winning is not the goal of this day — having fun is! This year the sun wasn't out much, but that didn't stop the Class of '86 from having fun on the field.

1. Todd and Kelly show us how it's done.
2. Everyone gathers to watch Kevin trying to get up in the Three-Legged Race.
3. What is Aubry training Mike Foy to do?
4. Strictly a Senior show!
5. Eric leaps through the obstacle course.
6. Paul and Jill lead the wheelbarrow race.
7. Select Seniors look toward the field and cheer on the participants.

Know what I mean, Vern?

We've graduated. No more essays, no more detentions, no more passing that cute guy in the halls, no more Senior pranks, no more rendezvous at break, no more after school practice, and no more of all that is familiar and comforting to you. We can't go back, so we must go on. Onward means more problems, more responsibilities, and more strangers. This is the twilight of our carefree years; the sun is setting on our past. We have no choice but to face the future, but is the future really so dim? Think of what we have to look forward to — more opportunities, more freedom, and more people to get to know. We're twelve years older and twelve years wiser. Aren't we ready to take on the world? Isn't this what we've been waiting for? This is the beginning of the rest of our lives! So what if today's sun has gone down? Tomorrow is what's important. My message to the Class of 1986 is simply this: Though it may be dark, the sun always rises.
